MINER PROMOTES OFFICERS IN SYRACUSE FIRE DEPARTMENT

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Mayor Stephanie A. Miner today promoted three new officers in the Syracuse Fire Department during a ceremony at Syracuse City Hall today. The officers have decades of combined experience in the Syracuse Fire Department.

“Our Fire Department is dependent on strong, capable leadership and these firefighters are up to the serious task of keeping our community safe,” said Syracuse Mayor Stephanie A. Miner. “I thank these firefighters for their service and dedication to our City.”

The promoted officers, and their new ranks, are:

- Deputy Chief Paul Cousins is promoted from District Chief.
- District Chief David Munski is promoted from Captain.
- Captain John Lisi is promoted from Lieutenant.

As part of today’s promotional ceremony, Mayor Miner issued a proclamation recognizing October 4 through October 10 as Fire Prevention Week in the City of Syracuse.

The Syracuse Fire Department is one of only two Insurance Service Organization (ISO)-rated Class 1 Fire Departments in New York State.
