an Outstanding Community Leader*

Deadline for Submitting Nominations will be Friday, March 18; Award Presentation to Take Place on March 31

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The City of Syracuse Commission for Women is seeking nominations for the Woman of the Year Award. This award is presented annually by Mayor Stephanie A. Miner and the Syracuse Commission for Women to a woman in the community who has demonstrated her commitment to community service, served as a role model for other women, and enhanced the lives of City residents. This is the sixth year this award has been presented.

“Our community is gifted with many women who are dedicated to improving the lives of their neighbors and I am honored to recognize one of these leaders each year,” said Syracuse Mayor Stephanie A. Miner. “From educators to entrepreneurs, private citizens and public servants, we are lucky to have these women involved in the City of Syracuse, contributing to civic life every day.”

Nominations are due to the Mayor’s Office before the close of business on Friday, March 18, 2016. The award ceremony will take place at 5 p.m. in the Atrium at City Hall Commons on Thursday, March 31, as a capstone celebration for Women’s History Month in the City of Syracuse. Nominations can be sent to Maria Ferrara, Director of Constituent Services at mferrara@syrgov.net or by mail to:
