“We must support the Say Yes to Education Endowment and ensure this program, which is critical to offering educational and economic opportunities to the young people of Syracuse, continues to be a vibrant success” said Syracuse Mayor Stephanie A. Miner. “I’ve been proud to support Say Yes from its inception in this community. I believe every child in Syracuse can live up to their potential.”

Tickets can be purchased at the door and are $75 per person. Those who cannot attend but wish to sponsor a Say Yes Scholar to attend can do so for $50. The gala is black tie optional. Free parking will be available in the Trolley Lot, behind the MOST.

This is the third year in a row Mayor Miner has hosted a gala in support of Say Yes to Education. Last year, the event raised over $260,000, which included a generous contribution from Key Bank announced that night. Mayor Miner has made supporting Say Yes to Education a signature accomplishment of her time in office. As a Common Councilor, she worked to bring the program into the Syracuse City School District.

The Say Yes to Education Endowment Fund is managed by the Central New York Community Foundation, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. Reservations can be made by contacting the Office of the Mayor at (315) 448-8095 and tickets can be purchased by going to the Eventbrite page, 2016sayyesgala.eventbrite.com. 100% of ticket sales benefit the Say Yes Endowment Fund.
