Mayor Stephanie A. Miner to Host “City Hall Parks Here” in City Neighborhoods

Syracuse, NY- Mayor Stephanie A. Miner will host “City Hall Parks Here,” a series of neighborhood “office” hours throughout the City and featuring Syracuse’s parks, beginning July 29 at Onondaga Park.

Mayor Miner will update residents on what the City has been doing in their neighborhoods and be available to speak with residents one-on-one. City representatives from the Police Department, the Department of Neighborhood and Business Development, Code Enforcement and the Department of Public Works will be available to take questions from and address the concerns of City residents.

Additionally, Home Headquarters and Say Yes to Education will have information tables and personnel available to answer questions about the programs and services they provide.

Interested residents should bring lawn chairs or blankets.
