MAYOR MINER ANNOUNCES
DELTA AIRLINES TO ADD MORE
ATLANTA FLIGHTS FOR FINAL FOUR

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Mayor Stephanie A. Miner today announced that Delta Air Lines is adding more flights to Atlanta in anticipation of this weekend’s NCAA Final Four tournament. In addition to the increase number of flights, the airline is upgrading equipment, to include the Airbus 320 and Boeing 757-300. The additional flights will be available shortly to book on Delta’s website.

“We are excited to see our home team headed to Atlanta for the Final Four,” said Mayor Stephanie A. Miner. “We appreciate Delta recognizing the importance of this game and the potential for expanding the ability of Central New Yorkers to travel down and cheer on the Orange.”
