MINER ATTENDS MAYORS SUMMIT ON IMMIGRATION IN NEW YORK CITY

Hosted by Mayor Bill de Blasio, Summit Will Discuss Implementation Of President Obama's Executive Order on Immigration

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Mayor Stephanie A. Miner is in New York City today participating in a summit of Mayors from across the United States discussing the implementation of President Obama's recent executive order on immigration.

“Mayors tackle immigration in our cities every day and I’m pleased to join this group to have a holistic discussion on this important policy issue,” said Syracuse Mayor Stephanie A. Miner. “Syracuse is home to generations from many nations. I am proud to discuss our immigrant heritage with my colleagues from across America.”

Mayor Miner arrived last night for a reception at New York City Hall. Today’s day-long meetings will take place at Gracie Mansion, the official residence of the Mayor of New York City. Mayors will discuss communications and organizing efforts around immigration issues.
