STATEMENT FROM MAYOR STEPHANIE A. MINER ON REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL AWARDS

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Mayor Stephanie A. Miner issued the following statement today upon hearing the news that Central New York region received $80.2 million in funding from New York State as part of the Regional Economic Development Council (REDC) awards:

“Central New York was once again named a top performer at the REDC awards. This is in no doubt a result of the hard work of numerous individuals throughout this community who contributed to this project. Many worthy projects received funding, such as the relocation of The Red House, the Hotel Syracuse redevelopment, Home Headquarters, and the Onondaga Creekwalk. I appreciate the efforts that went into receiving this funding and I look forward to these projects becoming a reality.”
