CITY INVITES PUBLIC TO MEETINGS FOR SECOND PHASE OF ONONDAGA CREEKWALK

*Second Round of Public Meetings Seeking Public Input into Creekwalk
Design to Take Place June 22-24*

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The City of Syracuse announced today that a series of public meetings will be held to gather further public input as the City plans the second phase of the Onondaga Creekwalk. Three meetings will be held beginning next Monday throughout the neighborhoods where the second phase project will be constructed. This is the second series of public meetings the City has conducted to gather public input on the second phase of the Creekwalk project.

“The Onondaga Creekwalk is a treasure to our entire community and we are pleased with the opportunity to begin the second phase of its development,” said Syracuse Mayor Stephanie A. Miner. “An important part of this process is gathering public input so the second phase is in line with the demonstrated needs of our community. I encourage neighbors and Creekwalk enthusiasts to come out and have their voices heard in these forums.”

Each meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be held at the following locations:

Monday, June 22
Southwest Community Center
401 South Avenue
Syracuse, New York
13204

Tuesday, June 23
Seals Community Center
at Kirk Park
300 West Borden Avenue
Syracuse, New York
13205

Wednesday, June 24
SUNY Oswego Metro
Center at the Atrium
2 South Clinton Street
Syracuse, New York
13202

The first phase of the Onondaga Creekwalk opened in October, 2011. The trail runs for 2.6 miles following the path of Onondaga Creek and connects the Armory Square and Franklin Square neighborhoods to Onondaga Lake.
